WILSON DELAYS PLAN TO SEND CIVIC AID TO SIBERIA AND RUSSIA

President, After Conferences, Decides to Withhold Commission.

WAITS DEVELOPMENTS

White House Says Idea Has Not Been Permanently Abandoned.

MILITARY FORCE IS SENT

Organization of Civilian Envoys Will Continue—Propagandists' Status Uncertain.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The sending of a United States commission to Siberia to extend aid to the Russian people of all political cuts and faiths, and to reorganize and rebuild the shattered economic and agricultural forces of that country for protection of its peoples, has been indefinitely postponed.

After talking over the entire situation with relation to Russia with his official advisers and with Col. House, the President has determined to call off the sending of the commission at present. The postponement is admittedly indefinite, depending on the developments in Russia and the progress of the Czech-Slovak and other movements.

The President has not, however, it is stated on good authority, abandoned the idea of sending a large commission of business, commercial, agricultural and financial men to Siberia to work with the organizations and aiding and giving help to the people.

Military Force Already Sent.

The military forces that were to be a part of the commission, "a police force to afford it and the supplies that were to be used in rebuilding the fullest measure of protection," has already been in large part despatched and some units are on the ground. There are in addition a steady number of Japanese, who were to be part of the military force, already in Siberia. They will protect the huge stores of American supplies that were left in Vladivostok and along the Trans-Siberian Railway when the Russian government was overturned by the revolutionists.

The exact whereabouts of these supplies, including munitions and a large amount of railroad equipment, is not known. The military forces will locate them and give them a full measure of protection without antagonizing the people. The officers of these units will have time to familiarize themselves with conditions in their respective localities before members of the commission arrive.

To Organize Commission.

Organization of the commission and selection of men to head it and its units has been somewhat delayed. This work will not, however, be stopped. Organization will go ahead so that the Government will be ready to move at any time the right opportunity presents itself. There has been some difficulty in getting suitable men. In every line of endeavor some of the most adaptable men for such delicate work as will be required are already serving the Government, and it has been found that many other men are unwilling to go to the country from which are coming constant reports of rioting, famine, sudden deaths, pestilence and disease.

A contingent of propagandists, who were recruited to leave this country early in August, more or less as an advance guard, has not sailed. Many of these will go independently to carry the word of American ideals and purposes to the Russian people is not definitely known. It is likely, however, they will wait for the commission.

U. S. MEN GUARDING SIBERIAN RAILWAY

Detachment Sent to Relieve Czech-Slovak Forces.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (delayed).—According to the report of Gen. Dietrichs, commander of the Czech-Slovak forces in Siberia, the head of the American force recently landed here is determined to leave this country.

GERMANS SEIZE SHIP AND RAID FISHING FLEET

Arm and Man Canadian Trawler, Which Sinks 4-Craft Off Nova Scotia.

NAVY SPREADS A BIG NET

Officials Confident of Running Down Marauder—Crews of Lost Vessels Safe.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The Navy Department has been advised by the commandant of one of the naval districts that the steam trawler Triumph had been captured by a German U-boat off the Nova Scotia coast, fitted with guns and wireless, manned with Germans from the submarine and transformed into a raider to attack fishing vessels.

The commandant's information is based on the report of the master of the Triumph. The latest advice shows that the raider has sunk at least four fishing vessels. This new trick of the Germans was not altogether unexpected by the naval authorities, who have believed right along that U-boat commanders might attempt to capture and man raiders off the coast. The Triumph does not cause particular alarm, for the navy is already taking measures to protect the fishing industry off the Newfoundland coast, and the Triumph could not be turned into a very formidable craft by the Germans, even though she might be fitted up to prey upon defenseless fishing smacks until naval aid arrives.

Germans' Difficulty.

It would take the navy three or four days to install guns on a trawler of the Triumph's type, even if the work were done under the most advantageous conditions at a navy yard. Therefore it is not believed that the German crew can accomplish any such work. It is regarded as more probable that the men on board the Triumph have taken with them guns or torpedoes and are planning to use them on an unarmored ship that could not get away, but it would be an easy target for a warship or submarine chaser.

Naval officers here believe that after the Germans use the trawler to attack fishing smacks they will take their men back on the submarine and sink the trawler. Should the Triumph remain in operation much longer it would be easy to capture her and the men aboard. As the trawler cannot make much speed she would not be able to escape the swift naval vessels once she was sighted.

Net Spread Around Raider.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Navy Department officials to-night confidently awaited a wireless despatch telling of the capture or destruction of the trawler Triumph. Every precaution has been taken, it was said, to prevent the raider slipping through the line stretched around the fishing region.

ENEMY TAKES PHOTO OF TRAWLER'S CREW

Triumph's Men Get Cigarettes and Refreshments.

A CANADIAN PORT, Aug. 21.—A German submarine seized the trawler Triumph off the Nova Scotia coast yesterday afternoon. Capt. Myhre and the crew of the Triumph were taken aboard the submarine and photographed by the Germans, who offered the refreshments and cigarettes. Capt. Myhre and his crew started for shore sixty miles away late in the afternoon. Before they left in dories the Germans had put two light guns on the Triumph, fore and aft, and fitted up a small wireless apparatus. The Triumph then set off in company with the submarine for fishing grounds. Four fishing schooners are known to have been sunk by the converted raider. They are the Una P. Saunders of Lunenburg, N. S.; the E. Platt of Andrews of Gloucester, Mass.; the Francis J. O'Hara of Boston and the Lucille Schmale of Lunenburg. The first three were sunk yesterday, and the Schmale was sent down today.
